

2022 Chapter Awards Nomination Form

It is time to select one of our own to be honored for their dedication to IREM®. The CPM®, ACoM, CPM® Candidate of the Year, Sharon Hamilton-Taylor ARM® of the Year, Associate member and Johnnie W. Joyner Jr. Industry Partner of the Year awards are given to those who exemplify the high ethical standards of the Institute of Real Estate Management.

These individuals give of their time and themselves to further the principals of our organization. They subscribe to high standards of excellence and performance. These awards represent hard work in their communities and jobs, as well as their commitment to educate themselves in real estate management. Please nominate those members who have best exemplified these IREM standards.

When making your nomination, please, write the name of your choice and a brief description of your nominee's contributions to the Chapter, Property Management Profession and Community. Please be concise in your explanation, write legibly, or type your response. Deadline to submit a nomination is October 21, 2022. The recipients of these awards will be announced at the Industry Partner Appreciation, Installation of Officers, and Awards Banquet on December 1, 2022.
